Dear Church Family,
Thank you so much for your great loving kindness to my family and me at the time of Judy's homegoing.
Your love, cards, memorials, flowers, gifts of food and expressions of sympathy were such a wonderful reminder of our fellowship in the Lord. I know I will never recover from my deep sense of loss in Judy's passing. I don't get through a day without weeping but the blessed hope we all share in Christ is a real comfort and joy in such a time.

Lovingly, John Look and family

Beginning NEXT SUNDAY, January 13th

In Sunday School (Adult Class – Main Level Classroom by stairs)

“The Acceptable SINS of Christians”

If a committed Christ-follower cheated on their taxes, we would talk to them about it. If they murdered someone, we would turn them in. But if they gossip or complain – we will let them do that for the rest of their life with no rebuke or confrontation.

Why are some sins “acceptable” among Christ’s followers?

This six-part, video series will tackle some of the sins that we seem to accept as normal. David Whiting is the video teacher, facilitated by Steve Krumlauf. All are welcome!
