Sanctity of Life Sunday

January 23rd

Historically, Sanctity of Human Life Sunday (SOHL) is a day that churches across the nation set aside to honor and recognize the value of all human life. On the 23rd we will be sharing a video from New Life Family Services during the service and will have Baby Bottles available to take home for you to collect change for a month. Bring bottles back Sunday February 27th. Money collected will support New Life Family Services.
